THE FIRST GOOD 9/11? - THE MOVEMENT MAKES OFF-BROADWAY DEBUT AT SOHO PLAYHOUSE

A daring new duo tackle national trauma, America, and artistic delusion - through the power of idiocy and theatre.

NEW YORK CITY, NY. - The clown duo ethan&gigi, formed by Ethan Lindhout and Gigi del Rosario, is making their Off-Broadway debut at SoHo Playhouse with their show THE MOVEMENT, running for one night only on Thursday, September 11th, 2025.

Upon meeting, Ethan and Gigi quickly became acquainted with their shared divine purpose: to begin a political revolution through the power of theatre. Since then, their show has attained critical success at comedy powerhouse institutions such as UCB, Second City, and as part of Chris Gethard's THAT SHOW.

Lindhout shares, "Spectacle only takes a production so far, people are hungry for authenticity, they want shows that feel expansive; THE MOVEMENT speaks to the need to do something in this screwed up world, even when you don't know what that something is. Through chaos, we uncover something new."

Believing that revolution starts on the Off-Broadway stage, spills out into the streets, and sparks inside the heart of America, these two overconfident artists team together to raise the morale of the masses and create REAL political action - by doing America's First Good 9/11.

"This show isn't in any way making fun or making light of that tragic day," del Rosario writes.

"This show is a result of taking our grief and alchemizing through the clown's resilience and ability to dream with no limits."

THE MOVEMENT takes the revolution from the streets and puts it onto the stage where it belongs. You're right, Gil, the revolution will NOT be televised. It will be at the SoHo Playhouse on September 11th, 2025.

Against the backdrop of post 9/11 America, weaving together themes of queerness, racial identity, and class, THE MOVEMENT asks: “in our fervor to remember, what do we forget?” (citation).

The show has surprise celebrity guests and creative consultation from international theatre savant Aitor Basuari.
